

Bridal music previews are designed to help the bride choose her music for her big day. We invite you to sample music played by a live string quartet on a leisurely afternoon. We give you a worksheet to follow along as we play music that is typically played for weddings. Afterwards, we guide you with your decision of placing music in the different sections of your ceremony. These events are scheduled 2-3 times per year.